IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

ANGELO M. BOL,

Petitioner,

8:25CV86

VS.

STATE OF NEBRASKA,

Respondent.

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This matter is before the Court on initial review of Petitioner Angelo M. Bol's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus brought pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254. Filing No. 1. The Court will dismiss the petition because it is a second or successive habeas corpus petition that has not been authorized by the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals.

The statutory prohibition against successive petitions by state prisoners is codified in 28 U.S.C. § 2244, which provides in relevant part:

- (b)(1) A claim presented in a second or successive habeas corpus application under section 2254 that was presented in a prior application shall be dismissed.
- (2) A claim presented in a second or successive habeas corpus application under section 2254 that was not presented in a prior application shall be dismissed unless—
  - (A) the applicant shows that the claim relies on a new rule of constitutional law, made retroactive to cases on collateral review by the Supreme Court, that was previously unavailable; or
  - (B)(i) the factual predicate for the claim could not have been discovered previously through the exercise of due diligence; and

- (ii) the facts underlying the claim, if proven and viewed in light of the evidence as a whole, would be sufficient to establish by clear and convincing evidence that, but for constitutional error, no reasonable factfinder would have found the applicant guilty of the underlying offense.
- (3)(A) Before a second or successive application permitted by this section is filed in the district court, the applicant shall move in the appropriate court of appeals for an order authorizing the district court to consider the application.

28 U.S.C. § 2244(b).

In Magwood v. Patterson, 561 U.S. 320, 332–33 (2010), the United States Supreme Court held that "the phrase 'second or successive' must be interpreted with respect to the judgment challenged." In other words, the phrase "second or successive" applies to entire habeas petitions, and not to individual claims in those petitions. Id. If a petition is deemed successive, the district court lacks "jurisdiction to consider it in the first place," and the district court must dismiss the petition. Burton v. Stewart, 549 U.S. 147, 152 (2007). However, dismissal is not appropriate where a petitioner "asserts a new rule of constitutional law or raises new facts that establish the petitioner's innocence of the underlying offense." Singleton v. Norris, 319 F.3d 1018, 1023 (8th Cir. 2003); see also Stewart v. Martinez-Villareal, 523 U.S. 637, 641 (1998). The general bar against abusive or successive claims extends both to new claims which could have been raised or developed in an earlier petition and to successive claims which raise grounds identical to those heard and decided on the merits in a previous petition. See Vancleave v. Norris, 150 F.3d 926, 929 (8th Cir. 1998).

Here, Bol challenges his 2015 conviction in the Buffalo County District Court pursuant to a no contest plea for first degree murder. Filing No. 1 at 1. Liberally construed, Bol alleges he received ineffective assistance of counsel because counsel failed to investigate his case, present a defense, properly advise Bol regarding the proceedings, and ensure that Bol understood the proceedings. Id. at 5.

This Court's records reflect that Bol's habeas corpus petition is successive. Bol unsuccessfully challenged this same judgment of conviction in earlier federal habeas corpus litigation before the Honorable Richard G. Kopf. See Bol v. Frakes, No. 4:19CV3116, 2020 WL 3639673 (D. Neb. July 6, 2020) (Filing No. 18, dismissing petition for writ of habeas corpus brought pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254 with prejudice). Bol's previous petition raised ineffective assistance of counsel claims similar to those raised here, compare Filing No. 1 with Filing No. 1, Case No. 4:19CV3116, but Judge Kopf determined the petition was filed more than two years after the one-year habeas statute of limitations had expired and nothing excused the tardy filing. Bol v. Frakes, 2020 WL 3639673, at *2. Moreover, Bol does not raise any new arguments or allege any new facts that demonstrate he is innocent of the underlying offense. Thus, the present petition is clearly successive, and Bol must obtain permission from the Court of Appeals to commence this second action. 28 U.S.C. § 2444(b)(2) & (3)(A). He has not done so, and this matter must be dismissed. Burton, 549 U.S. at 152 (the district court lacked jurisdiction to entertain habeas petition since prisoner did not obtain an order authorizing him to file second petition).

Lastly, a petitioner cannot appeal an adverse ruling on a petition for writ of habeas corpus under § 2254 unless granted a certificate of appealability. 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(1); Fed. R. App. P. 22(b)(1). A certificate of appealability cannot be granted unless the petitioner "has made a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right." 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2). To make such a showing, "[t]he petitioner must demonstrate that reasonable jurists would find the district court's assessment of the constitutional claims debatable or wrong." Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 484 (2000).

In this case, Bol has failed to make a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right. The Court is not persuaded that the issues raised in the petition are debatable among reasonable jurists, that a court could resolve the issues differently, or that the issues deserve further proceedings. Accordingly, the Court will not issue a certificate of appealability in this case.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that: the habeas corpus petition, Filing No. 1, is dismissed without prejudice to reassertion upon certification by the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals. No certificate of appealability has been or will be issued in this matter. The Court will enter judgment by separate document.

Dated this 24th day of June, 2025.

BY THE COURT:

ior United States District Judge
